MONEY SECURED TO FINANCE ROAD

French Capitalists Interested in Line That Comes Into Virginia.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

New York to the effect that the plans for ill mancing the Cairo and Norfolk Railroad have been perfected, i. W. Goode, the president, naving arranged with French capitalists to finance the project. Of three routes surveyed for this proposed important trunk line two are through Bristol.

The Cairo and Norfolk, if constructed, will be of great value to Virginia, for the reason that it will penatrate a section of the State, much of which has been heretofore untouched by railroads, and which is rich in its mineral deposits and its forests of virgin timber. The route east form Bristol follows the mountain range to the south side of the Old Dominion, couring the rich mineral counties. The road starts at Cairo, ill, and has been graded a portion of the way through Kentucky, it is designed not only to sources, but to form a direct trunk line from the vast grain delds of the Middle West to the coast at Norfolk.

West to the coast at Norfolk. It is stated that President Goode gave assurances to a Virginian who called on him in his New Tork offices a few days ago, that all details for financing the road had been completed, and that the money would now be forthronting. President Goode expects to visit Southwest Virginia this fall in connection with the proposed road.

afternoon General E. W. Nichols, superintendent of the Virgibia Military Institute, received notice by telegram from the War Department that the school, as a result of the government inspection in April, had been designated as a distinguished institution. The telegram was as follows: "On report of college inspection board, institution under your control designated as one of ten whose students have exhibited greatest application and profisiency in military training and knowledge, as contemplated by General Orders No. 231, of 1999, War Department. Announcement will be made in general orders from War Department, by order of Secretary of War.

"McCAIN,"

There was no doubt in the minds of the authorities and of the cadets that V. M. I. would this year, as in the past, receive this distinction as soon as it was seen what an excellent showing the corps made during the visit here of Captain Simmons, the War Department inspector. Nevertheless, it is a source of gratification to all to learn that the insitute, for the eighth successive year, has attained this honor, being designated a distinguished institution year by year since the law was enacted.

Though depleted in numbers on account of the dismissal of the third-

Though depleted in numbers on account of the dismissal of the third class in February, the corps of cadets this year is in the best of condition, and has been considered one of the best drilled battallons that V. M. I. has ever produced.
